THE RALEIGH FINE ARTS SOCIETY

The Raleigh Fine Arts Society had its beginnings in 1964 when a small group of volunteers staged an exhibition of local art at the Olivia Raney Library in downtown Raleigh. The role today of RFAS remains as it was in its earliest years: to encourage the pursuit of art, music and the written word. That means identifying, supporting, and recognizing creative people and helping to ensure that their work is seen, heard and appreciated.

Since the 1970's, RFAS has been actively involved in a variety of projects that support the arts. These projects include the NC Artist Exhibition, an annual juried exhibition for multimedia visual art featuring established and emerging artists across North Carolina.

RFAS's annual Literary Contest is open to short story writers from every high school in Wake County. More than 850 manuscripts are received and judged by a group of writers and professors. The winning entries are critiqued at a workshop and monetary awards are presented at the annual awards ceremony featuring a special keynote speaker.

In 1999, RFAS began a new tradition: an annual Choral Celebration open to all elementary schools in Wake County. On two consecutive spring evenings, choral groups and their teachers perform before a filled house in Raleigh's Meymandi Hall, home of the North Carolina Symphony. Qualified adjudicators provide commentary to the choral directors, enabling them to identify both strengths and areas for improvement.

RALEIGH FINE ARTS SOCIETY, THROUGHOUT ITS HISTORY, HAS ESTABLISHED AND NURTURED THE ESSENTIAL LINKS AMONG THOSE WHO SUPPORT THESE ARTISTIC PURSUITS, THOSE WHO ENJOY THEM, AND THOSE WHOSE HANDS, HEARTS AND MINDS CREATE THEM.

Financial support is appreciated.
RFAS classifies as a 501(c)(3) non-profit, charitable organization under the IRS code. Donations are tax deductible.

Gifts (checks made payable to RFAS Endowment Fund) may be sent to

Emcee – Dorothea L. Bitler

Dorothea Lowendick Bitler is a long-time Raleigh resident who serves this year as Vice President-Projects for Raleigh Fine Arts. A graduate of UNC-Chapel Hill and The University of Virginia, Dorothea began her career in broadcasting on WPTF-AM radio. Her subsequent work included positions at IBM in Communications and Community Relations, Executive Director of the WakeMed Foundation, Executive Director of the N. C. Museum of History Associates and Manager of Marketing and Sales for North Hills where she helped introduce the popular Thursday evening Beach Music series. She currently serves as Director of Development for Our Lady of Lourdes Church and School. Dorothea is married to Geff Bitler and they have four children: Brooke, Amanda, Glenn and Mary Morgan.

Tuesday Accompanist – Joan Small

Joan Small is the music specialist at Green Hope Elementary School. She has been teaching for 27 years ~ 9 years in middle school and 19 in elementary school. The last 12 years have been spent in Wake County. A native of China Grove, NC, Joan received her B.A. and M.A. in Music Education from Appalachian State University. In addition to teaching in Wake County, her experience includes Orange County, Guilford County and Winston-Salem/Forsyth County Schools as well as Bowling Green, KY.

Wednesday Accompanist – Megan Yohman

Megan Yohman is the music specialist at West View Elementary School in Johnston County. Ms. Yohman graduated from The University of North Carolina at Greensboro in 2008 with a Bachelor of Music in Music Education. In addition to teaching elementary music, she directs the Youth Choir at First Presbyterian Church in Raleigh and serves as an accompanist for Leesville Road High School, the Cary Children's Concert Choir, and the Cary Youth Chorale.

Adjudicator – Ramona P. Jenner

Ramona Jenner is currently the Director of Choral Music at Martin GT Magnet Middle School in Raleigh, North Carolina. Mrs. Jenner began teaching in 1985 and has been at Martin Middle School since 2000. The Choral Program at Martin consists of a Beginning Choral Ensemble, Men's Ensemble, Women's Ensemble, and Honors Chorus. Under her direction, Martin's choirs have received consistent superior ratings in choral festivals, with a number of students selected yearly to participate in All-State Chorus and the North Carolina Middle School Honors Chorus. In addition, Mrs. Jenner teaches piano lab at Martin where she established the current piano lab. Mrs. Jenner has served as past Chair of the Wake County Middle School Choral Music Staff Development, and has served as site host for the ACE Festival (Achieving Choral Excellence) in Wake County. Mrs. Jenner has served as a Member-At-Large on the NCMEA Middle School Choral Music Executive Board and is currently Secretary for the Board. Mrs. Jenner received her Bachelor of Music Degree in Music Education from The University of North Carolina at Greensboro. Mrs. Jenner also holds a Masters Degree in Educational Administration from North Carolina State University. In 2005, Mrs. Jenner received her National Board Certification in Teaching. Mrs. Jenner has taught in Virginia, Georgia, and North Carolina with teaching experience in every grade K-12. She has also served as a choral clinician in Virginia and music adjudicator in North Carolina. She is a member of PENC, NCMEA, MENC, and ACDA. Ramona resides in Raleigh with her husband Tom and son Greg. As an addition to the adjudication process this year, Mrs. Jenner provided an instructional clinic for directors in January where she shared innovative choral techniques to increase students' musicality.
